MASS INTENTIONS

November is traditionally the month in which Catholics remember those who have died. All Masses in November are dedicated to All Souls.

BOOK OF THE DEAD

It is a tradition at the Cathedral during the month of November to provide a book to write the names of our deceased family and friends. Because of COVID-19, we will not have a physical book in our church this year, but are providing this virtual book as to give opportunity to continue the tradition of remembering the dead. We invite you to include as many names as you wish and to spend time praying for some of the other names you encounter on its pages. May God bless you and your families.

Lighting candles has been a significant part of the spiritual life of Catholics. We focus on the great Easter Candle in our church that symbolizes the light of Christ and receive a lighted candle at our baptism to remind us that we are Christ's light in the world. In addition, we often light candles as part of our prayer. The flame symbolizes our longing to be with God and to offer our heart's desires in His presence.

Due to Covid 19, we have not been able to light candles at the Cathedral for these special intentions. Beginning on Sundays before the 8:00am Mass, we will live-stream the lighting of candles for the particular intentions of our parishioners and visitors. Please fill out the form provided and we will light a candle for you and include your petition through live-stream. Thank you for your prayers during these times and I will continue to pray for all of you. - Fr. Michael

PASTOR'S CORNER

Page 4 | Sunday, November 1 | All Saints

As we are all painfully aware, the year 2020 has required us to make many changes. Here at the Cathedral we are not exempt from the need to make changes. In addition to modifications to our mass schedule, our office hours and hours of church operation have been adjusted. Staff have experienced a decrease in work hours and our security guard is currently suspended. These changes are a result both in trying to limit the social contact of our staff and parishioners as well as meet some of the financial concerns that have arisen due to the pandemic.

The month of November also brings some changes to our parish. Traditionally this month is set aside as a special time for praying for the dead. Usually the Cathedral provides a Book of the Dead for people to write the names of deceased relatives and important people that have impacted their lives. Due to the Coronavirus, this year our Book of the Dead will be virtual. You can access the book by going on to our website. Everything is clearly explained. The use of envelopes to include intention for the deceased will continue as usual. You can pick up these envelopes from the church. You will also notice on the website an opportunity to light candles. Many have missed this important form of prayer. On Sundays, I will light individual candles while your intentions are read out loud. It will be live-streamed prior to the 8:00 am Mass for people to hear the intentions and see the candles lit.

As well, November usually has us gearing up for our Festival of Trees and Lights. This year there will be no weekend for gathering, which is unfortunate because the festival is one of our most important community builders and a lot of fun. Rather, we will be providing an opportunity to purchase baskets in the vestibule of the church throughout the month of November. A reminder that all the proceeds from this year's "Festival" go to support our social service ministries which have continued steadily since we began "shelter-in-place."

There are, of course, many other changes. Some are quite small and perhaps I have over-looked them. Others are in the process of discussion, such as our Christmas schedule, the Walk for Life, and other large and important celebrations which are vital to our life as Christians. I want to thank you all for your patience during this time as we try to stay steady on this rough course. It's easy to lose sight of individual persons and their needs in light of the bigger issues which can seem so demanding. I appreciate your prayers and encourage all of us to seek out new ways to speak with God and praise His name in all times and places.

CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING #6: SOLIDARITY

We are one human family whatever our national, racial, ethnic, economic, and ideological differences. We are our brothers and sisters keepers, wherever they may be. Loving our neighbor has global dimensions in a shrinking world. At the core of the virtue of solidarity is the pursuit of justice and peace. Pope Paul VI taught that if you want peace, work for justice. The Gospel calls us to be peacemakers. Our love for all our sisters and brothers demands that we promote peace in a world surrounded by violence and conflict.

Como todos sabemos dolorosamente, el año 2020 ha requerido que hagamos muchos cambios. Aquí en la Catedral no estamos exentos de la necesidad de realizar cambios. Además de los cambios en nuestro horario de misas, nuestro horario de oficina y el horario de funcionamiento de la iglesia se han ajustado. El personal ha experimentado una disminución en las horas de trabajo y nuestro guardia de seguridad está actualmente suspendido. Estos cambios son el resultado tanto de intentar limitar el contacto social de nuestro personal y feligreses como de resolver algunas de las preocupaciones financieras que han surgido debido a la pandemia.

El mes de noviembre también trae algunos cambios a nuestra parroquia. Tradicionalmente, este mes se reserva como un momento especial para orar por los fieles difuntos. Por lo general, en la Catedral, proporcionamos un Libro de los fieles difuntos para que las personas escriban los nombres de sus familiares fallecidos y personas importantes que han impactado sus vidas. Debido al Coronavirus, este año nuestro Libro de los fieles difuntos será virtual. Puede acceder al libro en nuestro sitio web. Todo está claramente explicado. El uso de sobres para incluir intención por el fallecido continuará como de costumbre. Puede recoger estos sobres en la iglesia. También habrá en el sitio web la oportunidad de encender velas. Muchos han olvidado esta importante forma de oración. Los domingos, encenderé velas individuales mientras se leen sus intenciones en voz alta. Se transmitirá en vivo antes de la misa de las 8:00 am para que la gente escuche las intenciones y vea las velas encendidas.

Además, Noviembre generalmente nos prepara para nuestro Festival de árboles y luces. Este año no habrá ningún fin de semana para reuniones, lo cual es lamentable porque el festival es uno de los constructores de comunidades más importantes y muy divertido. Más bien, estaremos brindando la oportunidad de comprar canastas en el vestíbulo de la iglesia durante todo el mes de noviembre. Un recordatorio de que todas las ganancias del "Festival" de este año se destinan a apoyar nuestros ministerios de servicio social, que han continuado de manera constante desde que comenzamos con el "refugio en el lugar".

Por supuesto, hay muchos otros cambios. Algunos son bastante pequeños y quizás los he pasado por alto. Otros están en proceso de discusión, como nuestro programa de Navidad, la Caminata por la Vida y otras celebraciones grandes e importantes que son vitales para nuestra vida como cristianos. Quiero agradecerles a todos por su paciencia durante este tiempo mientras tratamos de mantenernos firmes en este rudo curso. Es fácil perder de vista a las personas y sus necesidades a la luz de los problemas más importantes que pueden parecer tan exigentes. Agradezco sus oraciones y los animo a todos a buscar nuevas formas de hablar con Dios y alabar su nombre en todo momento y lugar.

Padre Miguel

Santos Apóstoles y Mártires oran por nosotros!

ENSEÑANZA SOCIAL CATÓLICA #6: SOLIDARIDAD

Somos una familia humana cualesquiera que sean nuestras diferencias nacionales, raciales, étnicas, económicas e ideológicas. Somos los custodios de nuestros hermanos y hermanas dondequiera que se encuentren. Amar a nuestro prójimo tiene dimensiones globales en un mundo cada vez más pequeño. En el mero centro de la virtud de la solidaridad está la búsqueda de la justicia y la paz. El Papa Paulo VI nos dijo: "si quieres paz, trabaja por la justicia". El Evangelio nos llama a ser pacificadores. Nuestro amor por todos nuestros hermanos y hermanas exige que fomentemos la paz en un mundo rodeado de violencia y conflicto.

La semana pasada, la Catedral comenzó su presentación para nosotros, los padres, del programa anual de Formación en la fe, "Una familia de fe". El padre Michael pronunció su discurso de bienvenida cerca de la pila bautismal, el lugar donde, para la mayoría de nosotros, presentamos a nuestros hijos a la Iglesia. El padre Michael nos recordó que la Iglesia nos reconoce a los padres como "primeros maestros" de nuestros hijos, y cómo la Catedral quiere ayudarnos a vivir nuestra vocación en la iglesia doméstica de nuestros hogares. Sor Lisa Marie compartió con nosotros lo que dice la Iglesia sobre nuestra vocación:

"En virtud de su ministerio de educar, los padres son, por el testimonio de su vida, los primeros heraldos del Evangelio para sus hijos" (Familiaris Consortio, 39).

Por esta razón, el Concilio Vaticano II usa la antigua expresión "Iglesia doméstica" para describir el hogar cristiano como un centro vibrante de fe viva y radiante donde los padres nos esforzamos por transmitir la fe a nuestros hijos con la palabra y el ejemplo. Se explicó en la orientación que la prioridad de la Catedral este año en su programa de Formación Familiar en la Fe es ayudar a las familias:

- aumentando nuestro amor por Dios
- crecer en una relación real con Jesucristo, y
- disfrutar de los dones del Espíritu Santo en nuestra vida diaria.

Para ayudar a mantener un registro de nuestro viaje, se nos anima a mantener un "Libro de historias familiares", o álbum de recortes, de nuestro viaje de fe, destacando lo que aprendemos de las lecciones en video y la lectura de la Biblia juntos en casa.

Nunca pensé que podría tener tal impacto en la vida de mis hijos, y espero ver lo que Dios va a hacer en mi familia este año.

This past week the Cathedral began its introduction to us parents for the year's program of Faith Formation, 'A Family of Faith'. Father Michael gave his welcome address near the baptismal font, the place where—for most of us—we presented our children to the Church. Father Michael reminded us that the Church recognizes us parents as "first teachers" of our children, and how the Cathedral wants to help us live out our vocation in the domestic church of our homes. Sister Lisa Marie shared with us what the Church says about our vocation:

"By virtue of their ministry of educating, parents are, through the witness of their lives, the first heralds of the Gospel for their children" (Familiaris Consortio, 39).

For this reason, the Second Vatican Council uses the ancient expression "domestic Church" to describe the Christian home as a vibrant center of living radiant faith where we parents strive to pass on the faith to our children by word and example. It was explained in the orientation the priority of the Cathedral this year in their program of Family Faith Formation is to help families:

- increasing our love for God
- growing in a real relationship with Jesus Christ, and
- enjoying the gifts of the Holy Spirit in our daily life.

To help keep track of our journey, we are encouraged to keep a "Family Story Book", or Scrapbook, of our faith journey, highlighting what we learn from the video lessons, and the reading the Bible together at home.

I have never thought that I can have such an impact on my children's lives, and I look forward to seeing what God is going to do in my family this year.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Everyday Saints

Growing up I thought saints were larger than life people with extraordinary stories. The thought that I could one day be revered as a saint by anyone seemed crazy. I wrote my essays on different saints every year in Catholic school right around All Saints Day. These were stories about people I had never met, and I assumed I would never meet anyone like them going forward.

Now that I am older, I realize that I was wrong back then and my immaturity of both mind and heart did not allow me to see that there are saints among us all the time. I have met many people in my life that I would call living saints. They are holy people who give of themselves to God and others in profound ways. Their relationship with Jesus is evident and they live their lives in ways that people witness the transformative power of love.

As a child I was wrong about saints, but even more importantly, I didn't fully realize that all of us are called to be saints! Me, a saint? Holiness is not something simply studied in books. It is the way of life we are all called to live. The call comes from Jesus Christ and each of us must respond. If we are still thinking like children, we may choose to stay silent and live accordingly. If we are more mature in our faith then we might not only respond, we might one day have a school child write a report about us.

你們歡喜踴躍吧！因為你們在天

瑪- 5:12

每日當責- 在日常生活中體會天主 - 當日聖人

長大後的我，認為聖人比生活中擁有非凡故事的人更偉大。而我有一天會被人尊為聖人似乎是瘋狂的想法。每年大約在諸聖節，我會為天主教學校，撰寫一位不同的聖人文章。所寫的文章都是關於素未謀面的聖人，我想將來我也不會再遇見如此偉大的聖人了。

現在我年紀大了，我意識到自己過去的錯誤，我不成熟思想和內心，使我一直無法察覺有許多聖人就在我們之中。我的一生中遇人無數，我要稱有些人為活的聖人，他們是聖潔的人，終其一生深深的將自己奉獻給天主和他人，他們與耶穌的關係顯而易見，他們的生活方式為人們見證了愛的轉變力量。

小時候我對聖人想法是錯誤的，但是更重要的是，我並不完全意識到我們都是被召叫成聖的！我，聖人？聖潔不是簡單在書本上所研究的東西，而是去過被召叫的生活方式。這召叫來自耶穌基督，我們每個人都必須對召叫有所回應。如果我們仍像小時候一般思考，就會選擇保持安靜的過這樣生活。如果我們在信仰上能更加成熟一些，我們不僅會做出回應，也可能有一天會有學生在寫一份關於我們的文章。
