An hour and a half before Mass begins, my team and I begin setting up the live-stream. Since we began streaming Mass in March, we have been faced with almost every complication you can think of. Slow internet, dead cameras, missing cords, equipment breaking moments before we go live; you name it, we've had to deal with it. That's why we get there an hour and a half before.

With all these complications, I sometimes wonder how I ended up being the "person behind the camera." Long before COVID started, I had begun to feel a bit restless in my ministry. I could not tell you why, but I was feeling the urge to try something new. That "something new" ended up being live-streaming Cathedral events. Some of you may remember me hovering around with my iPhone. I did not know why I felt called to live-streaming. It was completely foreign to me, but I could not get that little voice out of my head that kept pushing me to learn more and do more. I had finally begun to get a grasp on things when I heard the announcement that public celebration of Mass was suspended. Suddenly live-streaming was not a hobby for myself but rather a necessity for my parish community.

The responsibility felt a bit overwhelming but the Holy Spirit had my back through the Cathedral Young Adults. One by one, I found my cameraperson, my sound guy, my A/V expert, and my whole support system, as the Young Adults came forward with their talents. When it comes to acknowledging the ways the Holy Spirit is working in me, I feel like the live-stream: a bit delayed. I am beginning to see that by taking a chance on something foreign and scary, the Holy Spirit used live-streaming to transform my ministry and bring the Young Adult community together. That being said, as we stand behind the cameras, our hearts are never far from our parish community. Many times we find ourselves in somber silence as we look out on the empty Cathedral, waiting for the day when we can all be together again. Day after day, week after week, as we set up our cameras, check our microphones, and prepare for the stream, the Young Adults never forget the gravity of our ministry. We see your names and your comments, your prayers and your gratitude, and we feel honored to serve you. The building is empty, but I know that God is working in our lives as we stream Him into our homes.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Page 4 | Sunday, September 13 | 24th Sunday of Ordinary Time

It's that time of year when schools open up and learning in classrooms resumes. Obviously, this year the education process is very different than normal and the "classroom" is going to be any spot where one can find internet and a quiet place to focus. For our children, this experience of learning is quite challenging. For our parents, this learning experience is quite challenging. The conversation around education and learning has always been filled with excitement and differing opinions. The pedagogy of today looks quite different from when I was in grammar school as did my academic experience look different from my parents. Perhaps, one of the significant gifts we can appreciate during this time of social distancing is an awareness of our ability to always be learning something, no matter our age, institutional campus, or apparent limitations. The failure to appreciate this time of learning will be to place too much emphasis on reading, writing and arithmetic and not enough on the experience of this generation.

What the coronavirus and social distancing has taught me involves life-lessons that can be appreciated at any age level. The following is a list of what I am learning, not in any particular order nor fully comprehended.

- Whatever I may feel about my health and concern over germs in my own body, who I am and how I live impacts the lives of the people around me. I need to be more sensitive to that.
- The growth of a Church requires that it has a broader definition of itself. We are more than a sacramental church in the strictest meaning of the word "sacrament".
- Many people live their faith looking pious but lacking humility.
- My focus on what I want, no matter how righteous, gets in the way of my spiritual journey.
- My ability to help others understand is very limited.
- People are stubborn and stiff-necked, including me.
- I don't often listen, rather believing I already know the solution.
- Growing plants in pots in downtown Sacramento is frustrating but has its rewards.
- What TikTok is.
- How to climb stairs more easily wearing long robes.
- The practice of being more patient.
- The practice of not getting distracted.
- Many people approach God as if He were made in their image.
- How much I allow the gift of time to be wasted.
- Responding with love is always the best answer.

All of these lessons I have been learning. Although many are not new concepts, my coronavirus experience is helping me revisit and learn deeper meanings in them. There are many other lessons not listed, and many more I have yet to take the time to bring to the surface of my awareness. It is quite possible that these months of social distancing will be remembered as one of the most significant periods in our lives. We pray that we truly are learning each day.

Fr. Michael

Es esa época del año en que las escuelas se abren y se reanuda el aprendizaje en las aulas. Obviamente, este año el proceso educativo es muy diferente de lo normal y el “aula” será cualquier lugar donde uno pueda encontrar Internet y un lugar tranquilo para concentrarse. Para nuestros niños, esta experiencia de aprendizaje es bastante desafiante. Para nuestros padres, esta experiencia de aprendizaje es bastante desafiante. La conversación en torno a la educación y al aprendizaje siempre ha estado llena de entusiasmo y opiniones diferentes. La pedagogía de hoy se ve bastante diferente de cuando estaba en la escuela primaria, ya que mi experiencia académica era diferente a la de mis padres. Quizás, uno de los dones importantes que podemos apreciar durante este tiempo de distanciamiento social es la conciencia de nuestra capacidad de estar siempre aprendiendo algo, sin importar nuestra edad, el campo institucional o limitaciones aparentes. El fracaso en este tiempo de aprendizaje será poner demasiado énfasis en la lectura, la escritura y la aritmética y no lo suficiente en la experiencia de esta generación.

Lo que me ha enseñado el coronavirus y el distanciamiento social implica lecciones de vida que se pueden apreciar a cualquier nivel de edad. La siguiente es una lista de lo que estoy aprendiendo, no en ningún orden en particular ni comprendido completamente:

- Lo que sea que pueda sentir sobre mi salud y la preocupación por los gérmenes en mi propio cuerpo, quién soy y cómo vivo, impacta la vida de las personas que me rodean. Necesito ser más sensible a eso.
- El crecimiento de una Iglesia requiere que tenga una definición más amplia de sí misma. Somos más que una iglesia sacramental en el sentido más estricto de la palabra "sacramento".
- Mucha gente vive su fe piadosa pero carente de humildad.
- Mi enfoque en lo que quiero, sin importar cuán recto sea, se interpone en mi camino espiritual.
- Mi capacidad para ayudar a otros a comprender es muy limitada.
- La gente es terca y necia, incluyéndome a mí.
- No suelo escuchar, más bien creo que ya conozco la solución.
- Cultivar plantas en macetas en el centro de Sacramento es frustrante pero tiene sus recompensas.
- Qué es TikTok.
- Cómo subir escaleras más fácilmente con tónicas largas.
- La práctica de ser más paciente.
- La práctica de no distraerse.
- Mucha gente se acerca a Dios como si estuviera hecho a su imagen.
- Cuánto permito que se desperdicie el regalo del tiempo.
- Responder con amor es siempre la mejor respuesta.

Todas estas lecciones las he estado aprendiendo. Aunque muchos no son conceptos nuevos, mi experiencia con el coronavirus me está ayudando a revisar y aprender significados más profundos en ellos. Hay muchas otras lecciones que no figuran en la lista, y muchas más todavía tengo que tomarme el tiempo para sacarlas a la superficie de mi conciencia. Es muy posible que estos meses de distanciamiento social sean recordados como uno de los períodos más significativos de nuestras vidas. Oremos para que realmente estemos aprendiendo cada día.

IS MY CHILD READY TO RECEIVE THE SACRAMENTS IN 2021 (#2)?

Last week we reflected on the five precepts of the Church in discerning readiness of the family to accompany their child for preparation of the Sacraments. We will continue with our reflection, this week how the family is living the ten commandments:

How is my family living / following the 10 Commandments as found in Deuteronomy 5:6-21 ?

(the Ten Commandments are a description of the basic freedom from sin that is necessary to live as a Christian. They are a minimum level of living, below which we must not go.):

For Love of God

1. I am the LORD your God. You shall worship the Lord your God and Him only shall you serve.
2. You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain.
3. Remember to keep holy the Sabbath day.

Here are some ways that we show our love for God:

- ⇒ Put God first in your life by choosing to spend time with Him in prayer, invite Him to be part of your family life
- ⇒ Only say God's name with love and respect
- ⇒ Go to Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of obligation (or if not at all possible, watch Mass together livestream and pray along)
- ⇒ Say your prayers every morning and night. Learn your catechism.

FAITH FORMATION 2020-2021 REGISTER NOW

As we look ahead for this NEW YEAR of learning about our faith we have listened to the needs of our families who are finding themselves needing to adjust to distance learning with their children at school. To help our families, we are adapting to a family catechesis.

This year we will learn the Creed and see how it is a summary of our faith. Families will listen and pray together online with the Cathedral Team, with once-a-month lesson with Fr. Michael O'Reilly. They will then have simple, age-appropriate activities they can do together at home as a family. There is no homework for children, but we ask the families to keep a scrapbook of their journey this year. As our social climate opens up, we will have social gatherings to share our family journeys together. Please see the parish website for more details.

What is Family Faith Formation?

Parents are the first educators of their children. The Church has always taught this. We want to help parents to grow in greater confidence through our Family-centered formation. We are introducing "A Family of Faith", a four-year cycle of family formation, where parents are given a detailed picture of authentic and vibrant Catholic family life, and given the tools to help them succeed at being the religious educators that they already are. Family Faith Formation will support parents in the religious formation and education of their children through prayer experiences, catechesis, retreats, and community building events.

What about Sacramental Preparation (Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Communion)?

All families with children in need of Sacraments will enroll in A Family of Faith formation. In December/January, there will be an application and interview process for enrollment for Sacraments. Please see page 6 of this bulletin to begin assessing if your child is ready.

What about teaching the faith by grade levels?

When faith formation is limited to the classroom, its impact is not only lessened - it can make the faith appear irrelevant to life, with it just another hoop to jump through to get those sacraments checked off. Studies show that creating strong Catholic families through involvement of parents helps young people see their faith alive and a part of their daily lived experience.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Our Father, Who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name.
Thy Kingdom come. Thy Will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

停留或繼續?

Should I Stay or Should I Go?

Life is not always easy on us and it can be hard to figure out the next step to take in our journey. We can even become immobilized by indecisiveness and fear about making the wrong move or choosing the incorrect path. I think of the song, Should I Stay, or Should I Go, as a mantra for many times in my life. Should I stay in this house, this job, or this car? Should I go here or there? When those times of decision surface, I usually turn to my wife, my friends, or even my children. Talking it out can help, and their perspectives give me more data to consider. When I lean on others to help me make a decision, it helps me become more confident in my choices.

Discerning the will of God is not easy either. Rarely do we understand God's calling clearly at first. God's calling is always more easily within a community of faithful disciples. Our stewardship way of life can suffer greatly if we refuse to allow others to assist us in the process of discernment. What gifts or talents are needed for the task at hand? Where do I fit best into God's plan? Where is God leading me? No one should have to decide the answers to these questions alone. We need to always lean on the Body of Christ to help us see the path that God has laid before us. Without a little help along the journey, over time we might find ourselves stuck in the same place where we started.

- Tracy Earl Welliver

生活對我們而言總是不那麼容易，對於下一個旅程也難以想像。我們甚至於優柔寡斷，害怕走錯路或做錯選擇以致陷入僵局。我想起一首歌名，"我該停留或是繼續"，這成為我一生中多次使用的口頭禪。我該留在這所房子？這份工作？還是這部車？我應該

到這裡還是去那裏？當決定的時刻浮出水面時，我通常求助於我的妻子，朋友甚至於我的孩子。把問題說出來是有所幫助的。他們的觀點為我提出更多的參考數據，當我依靠他人的幫助來做決定時，它幫助了我對於自己的選擇更有自信。

對於分辨天主旨意也是不容易的，一開始我們也很少清楚天主的召叫，但在信友群體中的個人，要辨認天主的聖召總是較容易的，如果在聖召的辨別過程拒絕他人的協助，那麼我們所過的聖善生活將遭受極大的損失。

我們的使命是需要那些聖寵或天賦，才能得以完成呢？我在何處可以配合天主的計劃呢？天主在何處帶領我呢？無人可以獨自決定這些問題的答案。我們必須總是依靠主基督的各個肢體團員，來幫助我們看到上主已經鋪在我們面前的道路。旅程中沒有一點協助，在隨著時間的流逝後，我們可能會發現自己仍陷在起始點。

- Tracy Earl Welliver

24th SUNDAY
