Pastor's Corner

It seems that so much of living is trying to figure out what it is we're supposed to be doing. Pursuing the career, raising the kids, planning the parties, designing the home, getting the degree, working and getting up and giving time to God can make us feel as though we've been just keeping busy so that we don't notice how off track we really are. People often tell me that they are certain that they have a purpose in this world and yet are struggling with just finding a reason to live. When everything we chase after, the family, the job, the material possessions, and the desires, leave us still feeling empty, what is it we are supposed to do? Even though turning to the Church and God can give us some deeper meaning, after a period of time we can begin to wonder if this, too, is just something to distract us from the true meaning of our life.

As I get older, I see that most of our pursuits keep us at the center of our actions. Even our connection with God is meant to help us fulfill some sort of meaning in our lives. This would all make perfect sense if we weren't trying to approach life with some faith in the divine. Once we add God to the equation, we necessarily need to take ourselves out of the center and put Him there. For most believers, we keep ourselves in the center and expect God to work around our expectations. In the end, whether we believe or not, with us at the center, we are clearly left with emptiness.

Put God in the center of your life. It's obvious and we preach it all the time. It's as simple as striving to give Him the glory in all we say and do. Do not strive to please yourself or anyone else. Strive to please God and everything and everyone else will find its proper place. The real purpose of our lives, the real reason why God made us, is to simply reveal to the world His presence (as in "the kingdom is here") and His love (as in "God is love"). This is pleasing to God. There is nothing else we need to do. Just tell and show the world that you believe in the Holy Trinity, and God will take care of the rest. You might find your exterior world emptier, but your interior world will be filled. (First published 07-22-18)

Deacon Don DeHaven
01/12/1928 - 09/22/2019

Deacon Don passed away over the weekend and the Cathedral Parish has lost a faithful and humble servant. He was ordained in 1985 and appointed to the Cathedral, and until recently, he led the Divine Mercy Chaplet & Rosary after the noon Mass, followed by individual blessings with a first class relic of St. Faustian.

Deacon Don wrote a beautiful book (available online) about his and our spiritual journey in "Born to Live: Reflections of My Life," filled with personal stories that point to Jesus and his love and mercy for all.

"Almighty and Eternal God, grant that the soul of Thy servant Deacon Don DeHaven whose memory of whom we keep with special reverence, and for whom we are bound to pray, may rest in the bosom of Thy saints; Through Christ our Lord. Amen."

Q: I volunteer every once in a while. How can I incorporate serving the poor in my everyday life?

A: In the Gospels, Jesus is very clear about emphasizing outreach to vulnerable persons on the margins of society. These may be the materially poor, the disabled, the lonely, or any others whose circumstances drive them from mainstream society. We can all respond to Christ's call to love by incorporating direct service into our regular life routine. Here are some ideas to find your niche:

Consider your life. Before you look for direct service opportunities, consider your schedule, commitment levels, and personal gifts. When can you help out and how regularly? Where have you volunteered in the past that has felt like a good fit? Do you have any particular skills or personality traits that lend you to particular work?

Do some research. There are a lot of structured ways you can get involved in your community. Your parish might have a social concerns outreach program. If not, ask friends and family. A simple online search for local nonprofits can also expose you to new opportunities.

Be open to God's invitation. The chance to serve may be closer than you think. Befriending an elderly neighbor, widowed and far from children, is an act of serving the poor. Keep your eyes and heart open!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Called to Compassion

What does a homeless person need? That may seem like an odd question since being homeless would indicate they certainly need a home. Beyond that though, what does a homeless person need? Most would guess the person needs food, money, clothing, medical care, and toiletries. Many parishes put together drives for those items. Is that all the person needs? It is easy to get caught up in all the things that easily come to mind so that we miss a key thing needed by someone homeless as well as all human beings: to be seen.

How many of us pass by homeless people and pretend they are not even there. We don't have money in our pocket, we don't have food to give, and we don't have material items that they need, so we offer them nothing. We don't even offer ourselves.

Welcoming someone with a kind word is free. Amazingly, we act like it costs us more than anything else. It is easier to hand someone $5 than it is to engage in a 15-second exchange of words. We talk about being generous, but we need to remember that sometimes the greatest gift we have to give is simply ourselves. The Jesus in me meets the Jesus in you. One day, you or I may find ourselves in a tough spot, and we will be looking for compassion. Let's hope that all those who profess to know Jesus don't simply pass on by pretending not to see us.

-Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

The Gift of Our Guardian Angels

It's good to know we're not alone. This October 2nd we celebrate the feast of our guardian angels. This ancient belief has roots in Scripture. In Matthew's Gospel, Jesus implies the special guiding care of the angels. "See that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I say to you that their angels in heaven always look upon the face of my heavenly Father" (Matthew 18:10). Our guardian angels are given to us by God to protect and watch over us from the moment of our conception until the hour of death. Let's pray together to our own heavenly help: Angel of God, my guardian dear, to whom God's love commits me here, ever this day be at my side to light, to guard, to rule, and to guide. Amen.

Never get tired of doing little things for others.
Sometimes those little things occupy the biggest part of their hearts.
~St. Therese of Lisieux ~

Cathedral Kids

Sharing the Gospel - Today Jesus told a story about a selfish rich man who ignored God and refused to share with other people. All his money did him no good when he died. He didn't go to heaven. He had his whole life to learn about God, and he could have helped many people with his money. Instead, he forgot about God. He wasted his riches and bought a lot of nice things for himself. Learn from the rich man. Live for God, not for money.

Prayer - Dear God, help me to share the things you have given me. I love you more than money.

Mission for the Week - Use four jars to save your money, and label them GOD, GIVE, SAVE, and SPEND. Use the money from the first two jars to share with God and others. Use the money in the last two jars for yourself.

Esquina del Pastor

Parece que tanto vivir está tratando de descubrir qué es lo que se supone que debemos hacer. Perseguir la carrera, criar a los niños, planear las fiestas, diseñar el hogar, obtener el título, trabajar y levantarse y dar tiempo a Dios puede hacernos sentir como si hubiéramos estado ocupados para que no notamos cómo fuera de pista realmente somos. La gente a menudo me dice que están seguros de que tienen un propósito en este mundo y aún luchan por encontrar una razón para vivir. Cuando todo lo que perseguimos, la familia, el trabajo, las posesiones materiales y los deseos, nos dejan todavía sintiéndonos vacíos, ¿qué se supone que debemos hacer? Aunque recurrir a la Iglesia y a Dios puede darnos un significado más profundo, después de un período de tiempo podemos comenzar a preguntarnos si esto también es algo que nos distrae del verdadero significado de nuestra vida.

A medida que envejezco, veo que la mayoría de nuestras actividades nos mantienen en el centro de nuestras acciones. Incluso nuestra conexión con Dios está destinada a ayudarnos a cumplir algún tipo de significado en nuestras vidas. Todo esto tendría mucho sentido si no intentáramos acercarnos a la vida con algo de fe en lo divino. Una vez que agreguemos a Dios a la ecuación, necesariamente tenemos que sacarnos del centro y ponerlo allí. Para la mayoría de los creyentes, nos mantenemos en el centro y esperamos que Dios cumpla con nuestras expectativas. Al final, ya sea que creamos o no, con nosotros en el centro, claramente nos quedamos con el vacío.

Pon a Dios en el centro de tu vida. Es obvio y lo predicamos todo el tiempo. Es tan simple como luchar por darle la gloria en todo lo que decimos y hacemos. No te esfuerces por complacerte a ti mismo ni a nadie más. Esfuércese por agradar a Dios y todo y todos encontrarán su lugar apropiado. El verdadero propósito de nuestras vidas, la verdadera razón por la cual Dios nos creó, es simplemente revelar al mundo Su presencia (como en "el reino está aquí") y Su amor (como en "Dios es amor"). Esto es agradable a Dios. No hay nada más que necesitemos hacer. Simplemente dígame al mundo que cree en la Santísima Trinidad, y que Dios se encargará del resto. Puede encontrar su mundo exterior más vacío, pero su mundo interior estará lleno.

Padre Michael

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICO

¿A quién servimos; a Dios o al Dinero? Se preguntaba al escuchar el Evangelio de la semana pasada. Ahora vienen los ejemplos en las lecturas de la liturgia de hoy, más claras y concretas para un compromiso al cambio de vida. La lectura del profeta Amós dice lo siguiente al pueblo de Israel: "Tendidos en sus camas de marfil o arrellanados sobre sus sofás, comen corderitos del rebaño." (Amós 6:4). Una buena respuesta viene de la 1o Carta de Timoteo: "Pero tú, hombre de Dios, huye de todo eso... vive con fe y amor, constancia y bondad." (1de Timoteo 6:11). ¿Qué se puede aprender de estas lecturas? Son tan claras como el agua que bebemos. La riqueza no es mala; lo malo es no compartirla con los necesitados. Y no se trata solo de dinero, sino del tiempo de calidad, sonrisas, abrazos y decir un te quiero te necesito a la esposa y a los hijos y viceversa la esposa a su esposo.

El Evangelio, con la parábola del rico y Lázaro, cae con toda la sabiduría y compasión de Dios hacia Lázaro; pobre humanamente hablando, pero rico al poseer a Dios en su vida. Frecuentemente, la persona se ciega a las necesidades de otros, a los que sufren dolor físico o espiritual. La Santa Madre Teresa de Calcuta decía sobre el sufrimiento lo siguiente: "Nuestros sufrimientos son caricias bondadosas de Dios, llamándonos para que nos volvamos a Él, y para hacernos reconocer que no somos nosotros los que controlamos nuestras vidas, sino que es Dios quien tiene el control, y podemos confiar plenamente en Él."

VIVIR LA LITURGIA

Las personas, a menudo, piensan que si son testigos de algún milagro les traerá una mayor fe y los motivará para una mayor participación. Esto no es necesariamente cierto, ya que llegar a una fe real y auténtica aún requiere que luchemos un poco con nosotros mismos y cambiemos nuestro enfoque en la vida. La fe auténtica se adquiere cuando vemos sabiduría y vida en las palabras de los profetas y en las enseñanzas de Jesucristo. Todo esto nos apunta a un Dios que tiene un conjunto particular de prioridades sobre cómo se debe vivir la vida. Tenemos que evitar la trampa de la complacencia que está arraigada en preservar nuestros propios intereses personales y mejor vivir vidas que persiguen "rectitud, piedad, fe, amor, paciencia y mansedumbre". (1 Tm 6: 11) La complacencia nos mantiene atrapados en el estatus quo y nos impide trabajar por el respeto por la vida, la igualdad y la justicia, y por abogar en favor de las necesidades de los pobres, las personas sin hogar y los extranjeros. ¿Eres complaciente?

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA

Llamado a la Compasión

¿Qué es lo que necesita una persona sin hogar? Eso puede parecer una pregunta extraña ya que estar sin hogar indicaría que ciertamente necesitan un hogar. Más allá de eso, sin embargo, ¿qué es lo que necesita una persona sin hogar? La mayoría adivinaría que la persona necesita alimento, dinero, ropa, atención médica y artículos de higiene personal. Muchas parroquias hacen colectas para recaudar esos artículos. ¿Eso es todo lo que la persona necesita? Es fácil quedar atrapado en todas las cosas que vienen fácilmente a la mente para que perdamos una cosa clave que necesitan las personas sin hogar y todos los seres humanos: ser vistos.

¿Cuántos de nosotros pasamos por personas sin hogar y pretendemos que ni siquiera están allí? No tenemos dinero en nuestro bolsillo, no tenemos alimentos para dar y no tenemos artículos materiales que necesiten, por lo que no les ofrecemos nada. Ni siquiera nos ofrecemos a nosotros mismos.

Dar la bienvenida a alguien con una palabra amable es gratis. Sorprendentemente, actuamos como si nos costara más que cualquier otra cosa. Es más fácil entregarle a alguien $5 que involucrarse en un intercambio de palabras de 15 segundos. Hablamos de ser generosos, pero debemos recordar que a veces el mejor regalo que tenemos para dar es simplemente nosotros mismos. El Jesús en mí se encuentra con el Jesús en ti. Un día, tu o yo podemos encontrarnos en una situación difícil, y estaremos buscando compasión. Esperemos que todos aquellos que profesan conocer a Jesús no pasen de largo pretendiendo no vernos.

-Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Come Visit. Come Worship. Come Home.

TOURS

We love to share our Cathedral history! Tours are FREE, led by trained Docents, and held after the 9am and 11am Sunday Masses, and at 12:40pm on Wednesday. Tours begin at the Baptismal Font. Contact 916-444-3071 to arrange free private group tours.

Los tours en español se llevan a cabo el 1er y 3er domingo del mes después de la misa de 1pm.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION PROGRAMS

The cathedral offers a complete faith formation program, including Catholic Faith Formation, Confirmation, The Rite of Christian Initiation Program, R.C.I.A., for adults, teens and children, Religious Education for Spanish Speaking Adults, and a Catechesis Formation Program.

If you've been coming to Mass for a while, but are not Catholic, or were baptized Catholic but never completed your faith formation classes, we invite you to look deeper into the Catholic faith. Come meet some faithful

Catholics who love the Lord and would consider it a privilege to get to know you. We invite you to learn what Catholics believe in an open and welcoming environment. The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) sessions meet every Monday Evening at 7 PM in the lower level of the Cathedral. Feel free to come any Monday evening. For more information on all of our faith formation programs, please call 916-444-5364 or email Sister Lisa Marie Doty, Director of Religious Education, lmdoty@cathedralsacramento.org.

If you would like to celebrate the Sacrament of Matrimony at the Cathedral, contact Wedding Coordinator, Titi Kila at tkila@cathedralsacramento.org. at least six months before your desired wedding date to arrange a meeting.

MARRIAGE PREPARATION - The Diocese of Sacramento requires an engaged couple to complete a marriage preparation program no later than two months before their wedding date. Contact: Deacon Omar & Janet Bardales at matrimonyprep@att.net, or 916-427-9160.

You do not have to have your wedding at the Cathedral to take this class.

CONVALIDATION - If you would like to have your civil marriage blessed in the Catholic Church, or if you have been together for a number of years and would like to be married in the Church, this can often be done in a small, private ceremony called a Convalidation, without any cost or fee. To explore this possibility, contact Deacon John at 444-3071 Ext. 11 or jgjsla@cathedralsacramento.org.

建立聖彌額爾大天神殿 (九月二十九日)

聖彌額爾是教會的保障者，他是煉靈升入天國的引導者。

The Dedication of the Basilica of St. Michael the Archangel (September 29)

Today's feast was originally commemorating the ordination of the St. Michael's Cathedral in Rome and is now considered to celebrate the God. St. Michael is the commander of the three armies who attacked Ludwig and its party. The original meaning of his name is: "Who is God?" According to St. John's Revelation: At that time there was a great battle in heaven, and Michael and his gods fought against the poison dragon, and the poison dragon and its messengers fought. They (the poison dragon and its messengers) cannot win, and there is no place in heaven anymore. The big dragon was expelled, that is, the ancient snake, named Devil and Satan, confuses the whole world. It was thrown on the ground and its messengers were thrown together.

St. Michael is the guarantor of the church. He is the leader of the refining of the spirit into the kingdom of heaven.
