— Esquina del Pastor —

Han pasado aproximadamente cuatro meses y medio desde el encierro inicial en California debido a COVID-19 y tengo que admitir que todavía estoy tratando de encontrar mi equilibrio. Por supuesto, la mayoría de nosotros hemos estado inquietos y buscando formas innovadoras de vivir nuestra vocación. Siento que me he tardado bastante en responder a las necesidades de la parroquia, mientras mi personal y mis voluntarios continúan guiándome para mantener una presencia "eclesíastica" en la vida de nuestra iglesia doméstica, sus hogares.

No estoy seguro por cuánto tiempo más viviremos esta vida de distanciamiento social, pero nos damos cuenta de que los elementos de donde estamos hoy serán parte de nuestra futura normalidad. Sé que el Espíritu gime para que la Iglesia responda y vea oportunidades para fortalecer el mensaje del Evangelio. El Espíritu gime para que la Iglesia mejore las estructuras que hacen que la vida parroquial sea mucho más vital que la vida de nuestra Iglesia antes de COVID-19. Escuché el mensaje del Espíritu Santo en mi oración y me hacen eco en las palabras del Papa Francisco. Por mucho que ame la forma en que solía ser la vida parroquial, no quiero volver a los viejos días antes del Covid. Hoy es el día de abrazar una fe viva que cante más allá de los muros de los edificios de la iglesia e inspire a las nuevas generaciones a caminar con Cristo.

Ahora, ¿cómo lograr esto?

No se tratará de las redes sociales, aunque eso será un elemento. No se tratará de Zoom o Lifesize o Tik Tok o podcasts o Facetime o el Evangelio según la aplicación, pero incluirá elementos de estas tendencias innovadoras. Creo que nuestro mensaje de evangelización se verá diferente, y rezo para que el mensaje sea diferente; un mensaje que establece claramente que la Iglesia somos todos y cada uno de nosotros y no solo los ordenados y sus ayudantes. Oro para que todos estemos fortalecidos para aceptar esta verdad obvia, tan difícil como lo será para todos.

Creo que los próximos pasos que yo elija, que tú elijas, que la Catedral elija, que toda la Iglesia elija, requerirán una oración profunda y un gran coraje. Ya no se tratará sólo de enseñar el catecismo, sino de vivir la fe. Ya no se tratará solo de la misa del domingo, sino de unirnos al sacramento de la vida y vivirlo como Iglesia. Ya no se tratará solo de rezar, sino de orar. Ya no se tratará de ministerios individuales, sino de que cada católico abrace una vida que ministre a todas las personas. Ya no se tratará de buscar lo que necesito, sino de cómo puedo ser Cristo en el mundo. Ya no se trata de preocuparse por cómo sucederán las cosas, sino de confiar en la fuente de todo lo que es bueno, Cristo.

Estas son muchas palabras grandes que requieren mucha oración y trabajo. Los próximos pasos requerirán que tu y yo oremos y trabajemos juntos para que nuestro camino nos lleve a la gloria de Dios.

El P. Miguel.

The PASTOR'S Corner

It's been approximately four and a half months since the initial lock-down in California due to Covid-19 and I have to admit that I'm still trying to find my balance. Of course, most of us have been unsettled and searching for innovative ways to live out our vocations. I feel I have been rather slow to respond to the needs of the parish as my staff and volunteers continue to guide me in maintaining a "churchly" presence in the lives of our domestic church, your homes.

I am not sure how much longer we will be living this life of social distancing but realize that elements of where we are today will be part of our future normal. I know the Spirit groans for the Church to respond and see opportunities to strengthen the Gospel message. The Spirit groans for the Church to improve structures that make parish life far more vital than our Church life prior to Covid-19. I hear the Holy Spirit's message in my prayer and echoed in the words of Pope Francis. As much as I love the way parish life used to be, I don't want to return to the old, pre-covid days. Today is the day to embrace a living faith that sings beyond the walls of church buildings and inspires new generations to walk with Christ.

Now, how to get there?

It isn't going to be all about social media, although that will be an element. It isn't going to be all about Zoom and Lifesize and TicTok and podcasts and Facetime and the Gospel according to App, but it will include elements of these trending innovations. I believe that our message of evangelization will look different, and I pray that the message will be different; a message that clearly states that the Church is each and every one of us and not just the ordained and their helpers. I pray we are all strengthened to embrace this one, obvious truth as difficult as it will be for everyone.

I believe the next steps that I choose, that you choose, that the Cathedral chooses, that the whole Church chooses, will require deep prayer and great courage. It will no longer be only about teaching catechism, but living the faith. It will no longer be only about Mass on Sunday but joining the sacrament of Life and living it out as Church, together. It will no longer be only about saying prayers but being prayerful. It will no longer be about individual ministries but each Catholic embracing a life that ministers to all people. It will no longer be about seeking what I need but how I can be Christ in the world. It will no longer be about worrying how things will happen but about trusting in the source of all that is good, Christ.

These are a lot of big words requiring a lot of prayer and work. The next steps will require you and me to pray and work together so that our path may lead us to the glory of God.

Fr. Michael.

This coming Thursday the Catholic Church celebrates the Transfiguration of the Lord, when Jesus' divinity was revealed to Peter, James and John. He does this also in this Sunday's Gospel, with the feeding of the multitudes. Jesus came to show us the way to the Father through signs and wonders that we might open our hearts to follow him and profess with our lives that He is Lord, the Son of God who Saves!

Most of us do not have not received a special grace to have God reveal himself in such a powerful way, but have come to faith through the witnesses of others. As baptized followers of Jesus, we must tell our stories of God's love that others may enjoy knowing and loving him with us. In the Pastor's corner this week, Fr. Michael speaks of needing to look ahead with PRAYER and COURAGE. Go read his message on page 3, and then ask the Lord who multiplies fish and shows his heavenly glory to transform our lives so that others will indeed come to faith through us.

Please pray for our Elect and Candidates who were scheduled for Sacraments at Easter Vigil, that they may receive them this month of August.

Seminarian Victor Goranov shares his COVID experience from a seminarian perspective. Enjoy!

Hello!

I am Victor Goranov and I have been a parishioner of the Cathedral parish for over 11 years. I have served at the altar at the Cathedral for about 7 of those 11 years. I am an active member of the Cathedral Young Adults group and I am also a seminarian for the Diocese of Sacramento. I have four years of seminary formation under my belt and I am currently assigned to live at the rectory of our beautiful Cathedral. I just wanted to share a bit to you, my brothers and sisters in Christ, about how my life has evolved since the first Covid lockdown began circa March of this very...eventful...year.

How Covid-19 Affected My Seminary Preparation

Whispers, rumors, and news stories floated throughout St. Patrick's seminary in the first few months of 2020. A new virus was on the loose. "What, we wondered, would happen to the seminary?" We seminarians got our answer at a rector's conference, a sort of official seminarian community gathering, in March: "The choice was either to risk the safety of seminarians or send everyone home. Everyone is going home. St. Pat's is closing on-site formation. Classes will continue online." I remember that evening after the conference. Everything felt so surreal. I knew that this was an unprecedented and historic moment. It was time to dig in, quarantine and fight out the virus. I dutifully returned to Sacramento from Menlo Park and spent a couple months at home with my family while continuing classes online. Seeing my fellow seminarians online helped me not to miss them as much. I discovered that I could wear pajama pants to class and nobody would be the wiser. I quickly adjusted to the new situation. It was extra weird to take all my seminary spring semester finals online, but my grades turned out ok so I didn't complain. Doing seminary remotely meant that I lost quite a bit of the essential personal interaction without which seminary formation is impossible, but I did recognize that this is an emergency and temporary situation. Hopefully temporary. Didn't the 1918 flu epidemic last a couple of years?

How Covid-19 Affected My Ministry

If one were to be sitting outside the Cathedral rectory the morning of May 31st, one would have observed a seminarian solemnly dragging a couple of big suitcases into the rectory hall. That was me, and my mom helped me with my luggage as well. The Cathedral rector Fr. O'Reilly had graciously opened his doors for my visit. Thus, I began my current stint at the Cathedral rectory. Initially, my stay was to be only a month so that I could attend an online retreat (Thanks, corona. I could have been in Tallahassee doing the retreat in person!)

However, because I caught a slight cold towards the end of June, I had to quarantine in my room until I got a 'negative' result from a coronavirus test. It was a lonely week and a half of quarantine, but video conferencing and phone calls helped keep me from being too isolated (aka. kept me sane). I got my negative test result July 5th and promptly went for frequent walks and visited my family. At this point one might ask, what am I up to at the Cathedral parish? Well, I help with feeding the homeless in the mornings with the dedicated folks of the Brown Bag Lunch ministry.

Together, armed with masks, food, and prayer, we feed hundreds of homeless brothers and sisters out of a stairwell leading to our underground Mercy Hall. In addition to this excellent ministry, I help with answering the rectory office front door. In times past, seminarians used to be entrusted with the minor order of Porter (doorkeeper), and so I see myself as a modern-day porter in preparation for the ministerial priesthood. I always put on a mask before answering the door. It is also my privilege and pleasure to be a lector for the livestreamed English-language Masses throughout the week. This is my favorite ministry because I love proclaiming the written Word during the liturgy and it gives me a chance to show off the fruits of two homiletics seminary classes. Speaking of liturgy, one could see how corona has impacted the celebration of the Mass to the point that Masses are now outside, non-public accessible or livestreamed.

This is obviously not ideal in the sense that most people cannot be present in-person, but on the other hand I am proud of the precautions the Cathedral parish takes to ensure the health and safety of its parishioners during this time of global pandemic that has killed so many people. I had a frontline view of these precautions because

... from among our community

由三月中開始因COVID19 疫情關係, 我便開始居家令的生活. 除了每星期在網上代朋友教她的一年級班學生外, 便每天早上在YouTube參加 Pope Francis 在Rome 的四旬期和復活節彌撒, 程明聰神父彌撒. 也在Facebook 參加何神父星期日下午的中文彌撒. 每天都唸天主經和聖母經祈望上天保佑疫情早日消失. 前幾星期教堂開放, 便每天早上都行過去聖心大教堂參加彌撒和星期天參加何神父中文彌撒, 每天可以親身領受耶穌的聖體, 十分感恩! 有主在心中, 繼續以正能量面對每天在疫情下生活.” - Teresa Yeung

Because of COVID-19, everyone has to stay home since Mid-March. How can I cope with COVID-19? Besides subbing with my friend's class online teaching 1st graders, I was attending the morning mass on YouTube with Pope Francis in Rome for the period of Lent and Easter and the mass with Father Francis Ching from Canada everyday. Also, I attended Father Ho's Chinese mass on Facebook every Sunday at 3 pm. Everyday, I say a prayer 'Our Father' and 'Hail Mary' for COVID-19, may God send a miracle to the world that this virus will disappeared by itself as soon as possible. The church was re-opening for everyone last few weeks, I was able to attend the morning mass at Sacred Heart Church everyday until the church closed again. It was a blessing for me to have Eucharist everyday for last few weeks. I always believe that as long as you have God in your heart, you will be able to face COVID-19 with positive attitude in your daily life. - Teresa Yeung

(Victor—continued) I often participate in gathering information for potential contact tracing for the parish, which is a full-scale ministry on its own. I should mention that I also help with sanitizing the kneeler used for confessions, which are no longer held indoors.

How Covid-19 Affected My Family Life

I have to say that despite all the ill effects, stress and even deaths the pandemic causes, it gives us all a newfound appreciation for fresh air (masks are great for helping stop infections but lousy for breathing in). Before the pandemic, I never saw so many people taking walks outside or spending so much time reconnecting with family. Now, it's common. It was because of the pandemic that I returned to my parent's home two months earlier than planned. This meant that I got to see a lot more of them. I am close to my family and visit them when I can. The big challenge is to avoid big family gatherings such as birthdays, for the sake of the well-being of my relatives and myself.

Final Thoughts

I can't help thinking that if it weren't for the pandemic, I probably wouldn't have stayed as long as I have at the Cathedral: I enjoy living and working here. God bless and have a great week! - Victor Goranov

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The Power of a Simple Action

I remember seeing a story on a morning news program about a little girl who wanted to give an elderly man in a grocery store a hug. She had no way of knowing that this man had just lost his wife of many years and now felt so very alone and depressed. Her reaching out to the man seemed odd to her mom at first, but the girl was so insistent about giving a hug she moved the shopping carts close together so the exchange could take place. No one knew that from that moment on the little girl would ask to visit her new friend at least once a week for the next four years until he passed away. In an interview soon after the initial encounter, the man said, "I haven't been this happy in some time." Imagine the joy that the relationship brought to them both over the years!

It was just a moment. It was a simple gesture. Yet, it had a large impact that no one could have predicted. You never know what will result when we give just a little of ourselves. That uncertainty too often leads us to hold back or refrain from the simple actions of love or gestures of generosity that could come so easily for us if we wanted. We should never doubt the power of a simple random act of kindness. Generosity does not need to be grand to make a big difference. The time is now, and the opportunity presents itself often to plant a small seed that God can water and nourish so that something beautiful can grow.

結髮的妻子剛過世了, 老人現在非常孤獨又沮喪。她的媽媽起初覺得似乎很奇怪, 但是小女孩堅持要接近老人, 並且要給他一個擁抱。小女孩將購物車與老人的靠在一起, 以便取得接近的機會, 沒人會想到, 當小女孩要求至少一星期一次, 去拜訪這位新朋友的這一刻開始, 會延續到四年以後老人去世為止。在他們初次見面之後不久, 有了一次採訪, 老人說: 好一段時間裡我沒有那麼快樂過。真的難以想像, 這段友誼關係會帶給他們倆許多年的快樂!

只是一瞬間, 一個簡單的行為, 卻沒有人能預測它產生了多大的影響。只要我們一點點的付出, 你絕不知道會有甚麼結果。疑惑常常造成我們的退縮, 或自我對於愛做出簡單行為, 並慷慨付出有所克制, 但只要我們願意做, 是非常容易實行的。我們不應該懷疑可以簡單又隨時行善的力量, 慷慨大方不需要非常慎重, 才能產生巨大的改變。就在當下, 當機會呈現時, 我們播下一粒種籽, 上主自會澆灌滋養它, 使那美麗的事物得以生長。
